

The Janesville Daily Gazette.

VOLUME 30

Entered at the Post Office at Janesville, Wis., as second-class matter.

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN SATURDAY, MARCH 13, 1886

Published Every Evening Except Sunday, at $5.00 a year.

NUMBER 5

THE GAZETTE.

SATURDAY, MARCH 13.

Gov. Rusk and Representative Cuswell have succeeded in adjusting the differences between the state of Wisconsin and the United States. There has been an open question between the two parties since the war period;—and a general settling up shows the amount due Wisconsin to be $8,409.43. The performance seems to be very creditable on the part of these two gentlemen.

Under the reform movement of the administration a southerner of the F. F. V. type was made assistant treasurer at San Francisco. Lately Ames, a recent appointment, was removed because of insubordination to business—and afterwards $10,000 was missing. The new clerk says it was Ames and Ames says it was the new clerk. In the meantime Brooks, the assistant treasurer has to pocket the loss, and as he has no business ability it may not disturb him much.

There has been of late years no more conspicuous man in congress, and no man more devoted to the Irish cause than "Ribbon" Robinson, of Brooklyn, New York. No one would ever forget him who had a chance to carefully look him over. He is not tall, is somewhat bent, has a perfectly smooth face, a large nose, a retreating forehead, and a shock of cream colored hair which grows in luxuriant profusion and comes down over his shoulders. He is known as the tail twister of the British lion, and while he is something of a talker he is not a very dangerous man at long range. He once was a newspaper reporter at Washington.

At last the evidence begins to come forth that Mr. John R. McLean, of the Cincinnati Enquirer, has had a large hand in the general jobbing in which the democratic party has been dealing in Ohio for the past few years. This time the trouble is not a suspicion or a conjecture, or a speculation,—but a plain, matter of fact accusation by Mr. Isaac J. Miller, who, notwithstanding the fact that he has held some office in the councils of his party most of the time for thirty years, seems to have remaining in his conscience a heretofore latent preference for a course of honesty and decency. In short, Mr. Miller has "squealed" on Mr. McLean. The disclosure will only increase the political condemnation now raging in Ohio; and it looks as though, if the republicans are industrious and persistent, there can be a general purging and purification of the whole body politic in the state.

The expenses of the government were $8,000,000 more during the first seven months of the current year than for the same time during the year before. A bill has been introduced to loan $35,000,000 to settlers on western lands in sums of $500 each; the senate has voted to appropriate $79,000,000 for educational purposes; $20,000,000 is wanted to improve the Mississippi; the pension list will probably be increased $30,000,000; the Hannibal canal wants $1,000,000 a year for nine years; the postoffice department is coming out $10,000,000 short this year; the assistant treasurer of Chicago wants $50,000 to repair a leaky roof; Morrison proposes a tariff reduction of ten to twenty millions of dollars; the navy is to be placed on a better footing at a cost of $35,000,000; and Janesville is in sore need of $100,000, with which to erect a public building. Demagogues were never more active in their efforts to reduce the revenue, and reformers were never displaying greater statesmanship than in the number and variety of their devices for spending it.

In Brazil slavery is being gradually abolished through emancipation; and in ten years from the passage of the law the system is to be terminated. All children born in the empire are born free, and in one province, through the pressure of a strong abolition sentiment and of a desire to be the pioneer in the cause, slavery has ceased to exist. At Rio Janeiro, an emancipation society exists with branches throughout the country. This society, instead of being an object of suspicion on the part of the government and being watched by detectives and other minions of the law as similar organizations once were in this country, has the encouragement of the state and the support of the emperor and people. In this country the rule used to be "part black all black," and the presence of the most trifling quantity of colored blood was enough to consign a person to perpetual disgrace and servitude. In Brazil the opposite and more humanitarian rule holds—the presence of the least white blood puts upon an individual the ineffaceable stamp of freedom. Altogether, Brazilian slavery has been exempt from those inhuman features which make slavery weep and its extermination by the voluntary act of its people indicates the general development of a more beneficent spirit.

Ben Butterworth, of Ohio, in his very bright speech in the house the other day, called attention to one very essential difference between the two parties in his own state. If the democrats are themselves to be believed the corruption and iniquity of their party in Ohio is pretty general. Every statesman with his friends think that he was sold out to Mr. Payne. Reports of perjury and bribery in campaigns and conventions are prevalent and accusations of each branch of the party against the others are numerous. There seems to be no truth or health in any of its parts. Scarcely a prominent member of the party, however honest and virtuous he may really be, but acts as though he was to be contented with a serious charge would be made and proven against him, and the fact that he was a member of such a party would be prima facie evidence against him. Mr. Butter-worth's point was in the contrast between the recent campaigns of the two parties. Mr. Payne's election as senator has raised the sluiceways of corruption and depravity, while Mr. Sherman's election, though one of the branches of the legislature was very close and prodigious efforts were made to find two or three pliable republicans who could be suborned by the gold of the other party, was free of all scandal and all taint or suspicion of improper management. These two elections considered with all their surroundings and consequences, seem to be no bad indication of the character of the two parties in Ohio.

SOME IRISH FIGURES.

An English magazine contains a most valuable contribution to the Irish question from the standpoint of profit. Disregarding sentiment and rejecting all thoughts of pride and honor he addresses himself to the effort of seeking to know whether there is a loss or gain in continuing the union between Ireland and England on the present basis. The article shows first the constantly decreasing wealth and population of the disaffected part of the island; that whereas in 1845 that part contained one-third of the people of Great Britain the population has declined so that now it is only one-twelfth; and the writer says that if this state of things keeps on, Ireland will within a few decades, become only an enlarged Isle of Man.

The resources, taxes and expenditures are next considered. Ireland has only one-twentieth of the resources of Great Britain yet it pays one-tenth of the taxes—the revenue of Great Britain being from three hundred and fifty to $400,000,000 of which sum $35,000,000 comes from Ireland; while the proportionate sum which it ought to pay is one-half that amount. The generally received idea is that the island is a source of revenue to the imperial government, so it will occasion general surprise to learn that the cost of managing the royal affairs in Ireland is $15,000,000 more than its contributions to the treasury of the empire. An army of 20,000 men, to be kept on hand to enforce the laws and to preserve peace, make the war budget of the island of no insignificant sum.

The writer, Mr. Giffen, states that the Irish make $75,000,000 per year from their industries and labor—their commerce being of trading value—and of that immense sum, $50,000,000 go for imperial and local taxes, an indication, if not conclusive evidence, that the burdens of Ireland are altogether too great for her resources; and Mr. Giffen advocates the purchase by Great Britain of the land lord's estates, which has been stated would cost $200,000,000, and the giving of home rule to the island.

AN ENGLISH CRISIS.

Greater than the difficulty of finding statesmen to fill the cabinet offices, is that which Gladstone experiences in filling the situations in the royal household. A financial philosopher to manage the money affairs of the empire is readily discovered, but the proper person to hold the queen's personal purse and buy the groceries for the household seems to be scarce. The number of political exiles who are willing to grapple with the Irish question on its native soil is legion; but those who have the temerity to meet the same question in the queen's kitchen can be numbered on the fingers of a cork arm. Gladstone can find an abundance of refined diplomats to direct the management of foreign affairs and circumvent the duplicity, treachery and chicanery of other cabinets, but he finds no duly qualified person whose special column is sufficiently confined to stand against the gossip and jealousy of the janitor, male and female, whose abode is in the inner court of the royal household. Just at the present time he is searching for a "Mistress of the Robes." From the title attached to the office an unsophisticated American citizen would not suppose it to be one of great elevation or of serious complication. The title would naturally indicate to the ordinary reader that the "Mistress of the Robes" ought to be a good judge of dry goods so as to know what to buy, a person of taste so as to know how they should be made up, and a person of order so as to know the proper manner in which to keep them. But the innocent person who is the owner of any ennobling would show his entire ignorance of the imperial customs of the British court.

In the first place the "Mistress of the Robes" must be a duchess;—before this exalted position countess and marchioness pale their ineffectual fires. There are a few dukes left in England, and so far as known, all of them have wives; but for a variety of reasons the latter are incompetent or are dissatisfied to accept the trust. Some of them utterly decline to take any office under any administration—a position which would entirely disqualify them from engaging in American politics. Some of them are not in sympathy with Gladstone—how could such a person conscientiously have anything to do with the queen's wardrobe? It is likely that some of them got their pretty backs up in consequence of some actual or imagined snub given them by the foremost royal personage—but this reason has not been liberally advertised.

It is a fact, however, that the office of the "Mistress of the Robes" is in search of one one to perform the duties. The position must be extremely embarrassing to the queen. What the exact consequences of the vacancy are, of course cannot be told with exactness by residents of this country, but that they are not without their elements of anxiety, and apprehension is clear to one who notices the English papers. The title of the office would indicate that it would at

SAN JONES' MISSION.

HE ASKS CHICAGOANS TO GIVE HIM SYMPATHY.

The World's Eyes on the Battle with Satan in the City by the Lake—Opinions of Convictions—Timid Woman—Yield for Conversion.

CHICAGO, March 13.—Rev. Sam Jones held a sheet of commercial note paper in his hand when he strode out upon the platform at the Casino rink at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon. It was a letter from a 16-year-old boy, who asked the prayers of the congregation for his father, "who is in the habit of coming home heavily drunk and turning out of doors at the dawn of night." "If I had a letter from every desolate home in Chicago," said the evangelist, laying the paper on the stand, "I would be here until sunrise to-morrow morning reading them to this congregation. Four thousands bar-room men 4,000 desolate homes. (Shouts of "Amen!") Brothers: if I know my own heart I have but one mission in Chicago, and that is to bring the gospel to every home in this city. I trust every Christian here is in sympathy with this movement. (Shouts of "Amen!") When you lift your hand against this movement you lift your hand against the power that is trying to make homes happy. I never met a deeper need of sympathy in my life than I do this afternoon. (Shouts of "Amen!") I have just finished that the world has turned its eyes upon this battle. Why not have victory? I receive letters every day from people in Cincinnati and St. Louis who are praying that Chicago may be brought to Christ. You ask me, "What is Sam Jones doing here?" I am here to put his arms around the poor and bring them to Jesus. What do my opponents say? They say that they are fighting the vulgarities of Sam Jones and that they will die until they die. Now I am going up higher and unite on another. No preacher can accomplish a great work in a town where the people get together and say, "I am sorry about some things, but why when you say that you are a man of God, I will follow you." I take these words out of the mouth of Saul of Tarsus, "What shall I do? What will thou have me do?" When God called Saul he got hold of an honest man. There's nothing low of them in these days, brethren. (Laughter.) When I say an honest man I mean a man who pays his debts. When I say an honest man I mean a man who has honest convictions. Some people don't have convictions. They have opinions. (Laughter.) They can't stand a conviction. I would like to hear them all to pieces. (Laughter.) I would as soon take the steam out of a locomotive and put it into your boy's tin horse as to try to put a conviction into some people. I will say again, I would like them all to pieces. (Laughter.) Religious people have no business with opinions. I wish we had a few more convictions and could see these convictions moving you out in the world. (Shouts of "Amen.") With this shout have me! There's a mighty lot of people in this house who know what society want them to do. (Laughter.) A woman is ten times more afraid of a woman than she is of a man. (Laughter.) I have seen a woman who was just dying to come up here to the altar and be baptized, but she was afraid the woman sitting behind her would say if she weren't here she wouldn't be here. (Laughter.) We want earnest Christians. The Lord has no use for formal vegetarians. He's got no use for women who live in boarding-houses and do nothing else. These women who never saw on a button, and never put a needle into a sock, are not worth the powder and shot to kill them. (Shouts of "Amen.") I don't care whose wife you are when you are fighting on that line. (Sensational.) It is not whose wife you are or how pretty you are. It is whether you have been converted. (Laughter.) I have seen one day. All those who were present were backslidden members of the church. They came up to the altar, but there wasn't one of them to pray. I asked my wife to pray, and she said she couldn't. When we got in the buggy to go home my wife turned to me and said: "I am not going to pray again in public." "All rights," I said. "You can't be my wife if you are a backslider." (Laughter.) I have never called on her since, but if I were to you bet she'd still out on the corn. (Shouts of "Amen.")

When a person gets to talking vulgar the devil is in the house. I have seen a beautiful, heavenly school-teacher in Jones county, Georgia. One day I called on her and she said that the people in her district thought she was crazy because she was religious. After we had been together for some time I went out among the people. Several of them came up to me looking wise and knowing like, and said, "Don't you think Miss Jones is cracked?" "Cracked!" I exclaimed, "What do you mean?" "Why," they replied, "don't you think she is cracked on the subject of religion?" "Well," I said, "if she is cracked I want to be blasted wide open." (Laughter and shouts of "Amen.") That is the easiest way out of it for some people. Just you call me fanatic and go to bed.

These preachers back here probably know a thousand things as well as any of you, and those are: I know just what a fellow can do and to religious and I know what a fellow can't do and to religious. (Shouts of "Amen.") Now, if you have got the love, I have got and I think you have you will have to quit some things you are doing or you will go to hell. Now it is time to say "Amen!" (Turning to the clergyman sitting on the platform.)

There was a storm of "Amen's" from the platform, while the audience laughed and applauded vociferously. Now, resumed the evangelist, erasing the furrows of a smile with his hands, now let us see what we can do for the salvation of the world. I recollect the first week I set out to preach, and how a few weeks later I joined the North Carolina conference. The conference gave me no salary, and while I was on a train going to my home a preacher came up to me and said: "Jones, that circuit of yours only pays $35 a year." (Laughter.) I didn't thought "bout pay, did I? I did, for I was mighty glad to get a chance to preach. Now, then, I had but a very little money. My assets at that time were a pony, wife, four children, and $8 in cash. (Laughter.) My liabilities amounted to hundreds of dollars. When I went down to the circuit assigned to me the old solemn fellows came around me and said: "You are a likely chap, Jones, but you'll starve to death before you can cure. (Laughter.) Well, I rented a house on faith—(laughter)—and began work. I was bound to do the best I could, for I saw it was a good missionary band. (Laughter.) Well, I preached six to eight serious talks, and sometimes on a fifteen week. It went along until one day in the middle of April I came home and wife said that all we had in the world was on the table. (Laughter.)

You've all seen the time when everything seemed to give out at once—pepper, salt, and such things. (Laughter.) There wasn't a dollar in the Jones family. (Laughter.) It was a good dinner, though, and when it came tea time I went out and split some wood just as though we had one thing to cook. (Laughter.) Well, I was doing this a wagon came up to the door, and when I was introduced I never had so many rattles before or since. (Shouts of "Amen!" and laughter.) It wasn't long after that, brother, before the religion broke out on that circuit. (Laughter.) Now, I you are considering today you'll be surprised at what God will do for you.

SAN JONES' MISSION.

HE ASKS CHICAGOANS TO GIVE HIM SYMPATHY.

The World's Eyes on the Battle with Satan in the City by the Lake—Opinions of Convictions—Timid Woman—Yield for Conversion.

CHICAGO, March 13.—Rev. Sam Jones held a sheet of commercial note paper in his hand when he strode out upon the platform at the Casino rink at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon. It was a letter from a 16-year-old boy, who asked the prayers of the congregation for his father, "who is in the habit of coming home heavily drunk and turning out of doors at the dawn of night." "If I had a letter from every desolate home in Chicago," said the evangelist, laying the paper on the stand, "I would be here until sunrise to-morrow morning reading them to this congregation. Four thousands bar-room men 4,000 desolate homes. (Shouts of "Amen!") Brothers: if I know my own heart I have but one mission in Chicago, and that is to bring the gospel to every home in this city. I trust every Christian here is in sympathy with this movement. (Shouts of "Amen!") When you lift your hand against this movement you lift your hand against the power that is trying to make homes happy. I never met a deeper need of sympathy in my life than I do this afternoon. (Shouts of "Amen!") I have just finished that the world has turned its eyes upon this battle. Why not have victory? I receive letters every day from people in Cincinnati and St. Louis who are praying that Chicago may be brought to Christ. You ask me, "What is Sam Jones doing here?" I am here to put his arms around the poor and bring them to Jesus. What do my opponents say? They say that they are fighting the vulgarities of Sam Jones and that they will die until they die. Now I am going up higher and unite on another. No preacher can accomplish a great work in a town where the people get together and say, "I am sorry about some things, but why when you say that you are a man of God, I will follow you." I take these words out of the mouth of Saul of Tarsus, "What shall I do? What will thou have me do?" When God called Saul he got hold of an honest man. There's nothing low of them in these days, brethren. (Laughter.) When I say an honest man I mean a man who pays his debts. When I say an honest man I mean a man who has honest convictions. Some people don't have convictions. They have opinions. (Laughter.) They can't stand a conviction. I would like to hear them all to pieces. (Laughter.) I would as soon take the steam out of a locomotive and put it into your boy's tin horse as to try to put a conviction into some people. I will say again, I would like them all to pieces. (Laughter.) Religious people have no business with opinions. I wish we had a few more convictions and could see these convictions moving you out in the world. (Shouts of "Amen.") With this shout have me! There's a mighty lot of people in this house who know what society want them to do. (Laughter.) A woman is ten times more afraid of a woman than she is of a man. (Laughter.) I have seen a woman who was just dying to come up here to the altar and be baptized, but she was afraid the woman sitting behind her would say if she weren't here she wouldn't be here. (Laughter.) We want earnest Christians. The Lord has no use for formal vegetarians. He's got no use for women who live in boarding-houses and do nothing else. These women who never saw on a button, and never put a needle into a sock, are not worth the powder and shot to kill them. (Shouts of "Amen.") I don't care whose wife you are when you are fighting on that line. (Sensational.) It is not whose wife you are or how pretty you are. It is whether you have been converted. (Laughter.) I have seen one day. All those who were present were backslidden members of the church. They came up to the altar, but there wasn't one of them to pray. I asked my wife to pray, and she said she couldn't. When we got in the buggy to go home my wife turned to me and said: "I am not going to pray again in public." "All rights," I said. "You can't be my wife if you are a backslider." (Laughter.) I have never called on her since, but if I were to you bet she'd still out on the corn. (Shouts of "Amen.")

When a person gets to talking vulgar the devil is in the house. I have seen a beautiful, heavenly school-teacher in Jones county, Georgia. One day I called on her and she said that the people in her district thought she was crazy because she was religious. After we had been together for some time I went out among the people. Several of them came up to me looking wise and knowing like, and said, "Don't you think Miss Jones is cracked?" "Cracked!" I exclaimed, "What do you mean?" "Why," they replied, "don't you think she is cracked on the subject of religion?" "Well," I said, "if she is cracked I want to be blasted wide open." (Laughter and shouts of "Amen.") That is the easiest way out of it for some people. Just you call me fanatic and go to bed.

These preachers back here probably know a thousand things as well as any of you, and those are: I know just what a fellow can do and to religious and I know what a fellow can't do and to religious. (Shouts of "Amen.") Now, if you have got the love, I have got and I think you have you will have to quit some things you are doing or you will go to hell. Now it is time to say "Amen!" (Turning to the clergyman sitting on the platform.)

There was a storm of "Amen's" from the platform, while the audience laughed and applauded vociferously. Now, resumed the evangelist, erasing the furrows of a smile with his hands, now let us see what we can do for the salvation of the world. I recollect the first week I set out to preach, and how a few weeks later I joined the North Carolina conference. The conference gave me no salary, and while I was on a train going to my home a preacher came up to me and said: "Jones, that circuit of yours only pays $35 a year." (Laughter.) I didn't thought "bout pay, did I? I did, for I was mighty glad to get a chance to preach. Now, then, I had but a very little money. My assets at that time were a pony, wife, four children, and $8 in cash. (Laughter.) My liabilities amounted to hundreds of dollars. When I went down to the circuit assigned to me the old solemn fellows came around me and said: "You are a likely chap, Jones, but you'll starve to death before you can cure. (Laughter.) Well, I rented a house on faith—(laughter)—and began work. I was bound to do the best I could, for I saw it was a good missionary band. (Laughter.) Well, I preached six to eight serious talks, and sometimes on a fifteen week. It went along until one day in the middle of April I came home and wife said that all we had in the world was on the table. (Laughter.)

You've all seen the time when everything seemed to give out at once—pepper, salt, and such things. (Laughter.) There wasn't a dollar in the Jones family. (Laughter.) It was a good dinner, though, and when it came tea time I went out and split some wood just as though we had one thing to cook. (Laughter.) Well, I was doing this a wagon came up to the door, and when I was introduced I never had so many rattles before or since. (Shouts of "Amen!" and laughter.) It wasn't long after that, brother, before the religion broke out on that circuit. (Laughter.) Now, I you are considering today you'll be surprised at what God will do for you.

CHICAGO, March 13.—The last incident of a very sensational tragedy and a series of exciting criminal trials occurred in this city, Friday, being the hanging of two murderers. Over a year ago, Capt. A. H. Murphy, a noted local politician of this city, as the result of a feud, was murdered by a gang of armed men in a street in this city at midday. Friday two of the assassins, first Ford and John Murphy, both well-known local politicians, were hanged for the crime. Three others of the gang—Julio Taomas, I. Ford, late city recorder; one Cassfield, clerk of his court, and Oliver Buckley, also an officer of the court—were now serving a twenty years' sentence in the state prison on participation in the murder. Pat Ford, one of the men hanged Friday, was a brother of Julio Ford, and the other, John Murphy, was his cousin. The feud which resulted in the tragedy, grew out of a quarrel between local political "bosses," and the conviction of the murderers was brought about by the energetic prosecution conducted by the City and State and Order Committee of One Hundred.

The end, however, was not to come without another sensational feature. The man appeared cheerful enough all Thursday night and retired to his cell at 2:30 o'clock in the morning the loud breathing attracted attention, and upon examining them they were both found unconscious and evidently under the influence of morphia. Doctors were summoned and every means tried to bring them out of their condition in time for the execution, but without avail. On Friday morning, about 10 o'clock, the governor's facts and asked whether the execution should proceed. To this the answer was:

"Yes; go on with the execution. Carry out the warrants." This settled it, and preparation were immediately concluded to carry out the mandate of the law. There was no cessation of the efforts to revive the men, but when the time arrived to take them to the scaffold they were still in an unconscious state, and it was necessary to carry them to the grim structure from which they were to make their departure to the other world.

After the men's limbs had been placated and they were placed in the chairs, which were lifted by two strong men and the procession began toward the scaffold. They were carried in the best looking coffins the gallow, removed the chair and laid him in a half sitting posture, the back of his head leaning against the wall. He looked up ghastly and the falling rain-drops wet his face. John Ford, Ford's brother, was in the crowd, and he looked at him. He was speechless, helpless and without motion. The door back of the gallow opened with a burst sound and a tall figure robed in a black domino and half mask stepped out. It is the executioner. When he stopped on the platform, Pat Ford opened his eyes for one moment and caught a glimpse of the dangling rope above him.

With movements rapid and expert, the black man drew over their faces the black hood adjusted, and the man in black disappeared. One word, "go," and two bodies shot into space. No time had been lost, and the law stood vindicated. Ford, being a heavy man, took a long time to fall. Ford, and came up with a sudden thud. The jerk on the rope peeled the skin off of the left side of his neck. He pressed his hands together, shrugged his shoulders several times, heaved his head, stretched out his limbs, and ceased to move.

Murphy swung off at an angle, whirled back toward the wall, twirled around, extended his limbs, and the ball of his feet rested on the pavement of the yard. Then he threw himself up, shook his frame, touched the ground again, once more a convulsive twitch passed over his body; he drew up again, then grew still.

At 10 o'clock the expiration of twenty-five minutes, they were pronounced dead by medical experts, and cut down. The necks of both men had been completely disconnected. There is no clue to the means by which the men secured the poison. Sheriff Butler had feared such an attempt would be made, and visitors were carefully searched and watched. He believes they must have procured it some time ago.

During the execution, and some time previous, a crowd of from 4,000 to 5,000 people were gathered on the outside of the jail, and when the bodies were brought out by undertakers, fully 5,000 people followed them to the gallows. There was no unusual excitement in the city during the day, but crowds gathered around the bulletin boards and eagerly sought extras to learn the latest news.

On the body of Ford was found a letter addressed to the Sisters of Mercy, in which he attempted to defend his suicide. He wrote:

"I can not bear the terrible disgrace I bring upon my innocent children. I don't deserve this ending. To Baber and Cunningham, the members of the board of pardons who refuse to commute my sentence. I leave my curse. I wish you to my God. Dr. Holland, the pastor of Trinity Episcopal church, and C. S. Parker, editor of The Phrygians, who I believe instrumental in preventing a commutation. It will be your time next. Dear Sisters, forgive me. Good-bye."

"A Word to the Wise is Sufficient." "A word is not simply an inconvenience unpleasant to the sufferer and disgusting to others—it is an advanced outpost of approaching disease of worst type. Do not neglect its warning; it brings deadly evil in its train. Before it is too late, use Dr. Sagar's Catarrh remedy. It relieves the seat of the ailment, and is the only thing that can be depended upon of yourself with quick medicine 'till it is too late—till the firebrand becomes a restless torrent. It is the matured invention of a scientific physician. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

Let only Sister Sagar's Catarrh all sin's a mint to, but let us do our duty. (Laughter and applause.)

About 2,500 persons, nearly all women, listened to the sermon.

SAID TO HAVE STRUCK OIL.

Testimony in the Payne Case That Indicates a Stroke of Luck for a Senator.

CHICAGO, March 13.—The Herald special from Toledo, Ohio, says that the Payne investigating committee of the legislature arrived in that city Thursday night and Friday took some important testimony. It is said that the evidence was to the effect that Senator Blinn, of Ohio, against whom specific charges were made by Col. Donor, killed five chattel mortgages directly after Payne's election, the total amount of these mortgages being $11,000. Cashier of the National Bank of Commerce, Toledo, testified to certain money transactions made by White through the bank. V. H. Kotelian, of the Second National bank of this city, was also before the committee and gave important testimony in regard to money deposited in his bank by Gen. O. B. Hanney of Ottawa, directly after the election of Senator Payne.

Representative Emmott Tompkins of the committee, stated Friday evening that while he was not likely to give the extent of the developments that had been made, he would say that some very important testimony had been secured.

DYING ON THE SCAFFOLD.

RACE BETWEEN THE EXECUTIONER AND GOLD POISON.

Jack Ketch Succeeds in Making Better Time Than His Kival—Sensational Features of the Hanging of a Couple of New Orleans Assassins—Ford's Curse.

NEW ORLEANS, March 13.—The last incident of a very sensational tragedy and a series of exciting criminal trials occurred in this city, Friday, being the hanging of two murderers. Over a year ago, Capt. A. H. Murphy, a noted local politician of this city, as the result of a feud, was murdered by a gang of armed men in a street in this city at midday. Friday two of the assassins, first Ford and John Murphy, both well-known local politicians, were hanged for the crime. Three others of the gang—Julio Taomas, I. Ford, late city recorder; one Cassfield, clerk of his court, and Oliver Buckley, also an officer of the court—were now serving a twenty years' sentence in the state prison on participation in the murder. Pat Ford, one of the men hanged Friday, was a brother of Julio Ford, and the other, John Murphy, was his cousin. The feud which resulted in the tragedy, grew out of a quarrel between local political "bosses," and the conviction of the murderers was brought about by the energetic prosecution conducted by the City and State and Order Committee of One Hundred.

The end, however, was not to come without another sensational feature. The man appeared cheerful enough all Thursday night and retired to his cell at 2:30 o'clock in the morning the loud breathing attracted attention, and upon examining them they were both found unconscious and evidently under the influence of morphia. Doctors were summoned and every means tried to bring them out of their condition in time for the execution, but without avail. On Friday morning, about 10 o'clock, the governor's facts and asked whether the execution should proceed. To this the answer was:

"Yes; go on with the execution. Carry out the warrants." This settled it, and preparation were immediately concluded to carry out the mandate of the law. There was no cessation of the efforts to revive the men, but when the time arrived to take them to the scaffold they were still in an unconscious state, and it was necessary to carry them to the grim structure from which they were to make their departure to the other world.

After the men's limbs had been placated and they were placed in the chairs, which were lifted by two strong men and the procession began toward the scaffold. They were carried in the best looking coffins the gallow, removed the chair and laid him in a half sitting posture, the back of his head leaning against the wall. He looked up ghastly and the falling rain-drops wet his face. John Ford, Ford's brother, was in the crowd, and he looked at him. He was speechless, helpless and without motion. The door back of the gallow opened with a burst sound and a tall figure robed in a black domino and half mask stepped out. It is the executioner. When he stopped on the platform, Pat Ford opened his eyes for one moment and caught a glimpse of the dangling rope above him.

With movements rapid and expert, the black man drew over their faces the black hood adjusted, and the man in black disappeared. One word, "go," and two bodies shot into space. No time had been lost, and the law stood vindicated. Ford, being a heavy man, took a long time to fall. Ford, and came up with a sudden thud. The jerk on the rope peeled the skin off of the left side of his neck. He pressed his hands together, shrugged his shoulders several times, heaved his head, stretched out his limbs, and ceased to move.

Murphy swung off at an angle, whirled back toward the wall, twirled around, extended his limbs, and the ball of his feet rested on the pavement of the yard. Then he threw himself up, shook his frame, touched the ground again, once more a convulsive twitch passed over his body; he drew up again, then grew still.

At 10 o'clock the expiration of twenty-five minutes, they were pronounced dead by medical experts, and cut down. The necks of both men had been completely disconnected. There is no clue to the means by which the men secured the poison. Sheriff Butler had feared such an attempt would be made, and visitors were carefully searched and watched. He believes they must have procured it some time ago.

During the execution, and some time previous, a crowd of from 4,000 to 5,000 people were gathered on the outside of the jail, and when the bodies were brought out by undertakers, fully 5,000 people followed them to the gallows. There was no unusual excitement in the city during the day, but crowds gathered around the bulletin boards and eagerly sought extras to learn the latest news.

On the body of Ford was found a letter addressed to the Sisters of Mercy, in which he attempted to defend his suicide. He wrote:

"I can not bear the terrible disgrace I bring upon my innocent children. I don't deserve this ending. To Baber and Cunningham, the members of the board of pardons who refuse to commute my sentence. I leave my curse. I wish you to my God. Dr. Holland, the pastor of Trinity Episcopal church, and C. S. Parker, editor of The Phrygians, who I believe instrumental in preventing a commutation. It will be your time next. Dear Sisters, forgive me. Good-bye."

"A Word to the Wise is Sufficient." "A word is not simply an inconvenience unpleasant to the sufferer and disgusting to others—it is an advanced outpost of approaching disease of worst type. Do not neglect its warning; it brings deadly evil in its train. Before it is too late, use Dr. Sagar's Catarrh remedy. It relieves the seat of the ailment, and is the only thing that can be depended upon of yourself with quick medicine 'till it is too late—till the firebrand becomes a restless torrent. It is the matured invention of a scientific physician. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

CHICAGO, March 13.—The last incident of a very sensational tragedy and a series of exciting criminal trials occurred in this city, Friday, being the hanging of two murderers. Over a year ago, Capt. A. H. Murphy, a noted local politician of this city, as the result of a feud, was murdered by a gang of armed men in a street in this city at midday. Friday two of the assassins, first Ford and John Murphy, both well-known local politicians, were hanged for the crime. Three others of the gang—Julio Taomas, I. Ford, late city recorder; one Cassfield, clerk of his court, and Oliver Buckley, also an officer of the court—were now serving a twenty years' sentence in the state prison on participation in the murder. Pat Ford, one of the men hanged Friday, was a brother of Julio Ford, and the other, John Murphy, was his cousin. The feud which resulted in the tragedy, grew out of a quarrel between local political "bosses," and the conviction of the murderers was brought about by the energetic prosecution conducted by the City and State and Order Committee of One Hundred.

The end, however, was not to come without another sensational feature. The man appeared cheerful enough all Thursday night and retired to his cell at 2:30 o'clock in the morning the loud breathing attracted attention, and upon examining them they were both found unconscious and evidently under the influence of morphia. Doctors were summoned and every means tried to bring them out of their condition in time for the execution, but without avail. On Friday morning, about 10 o'clock, the governor's facts and asked whether the execution should proceed. To this the answer was:

"Yes; go on with the execution. Carry out the warrants." This settled it, and preparation were immediately concluded to carry out the mandate of the law. There was no cessation of the efforts to revive the men, but when the time arrived to take them to the scaffold they were still in an unconscious state, and it was necessary to carry them to the grim structure from which they were to make their departure to the other world.

DAN DUTTON DONE WITH.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, March 13.—The notorious contemptuousness of houses of representatives against Daniel J. Dalton, clerk of the courts of Hamilton county, came to an end Friday afternoon. Sergeant-at-Arms Allen returned to the city with Dalton from Cincinnati. He was taken before the bar of the house, and upon expressing his willingness to produce the desired returns when ordered the house wished them, he was discharged from custody.

Two to One for Selma. New York, March 13.—The billiard "wizards" are just now making sport of Vignaux, who seems to have lost his grip entirely. The "wizards" made a run of 250 Friday night, breaking the highest record run 31 points. He ran the game out in the twenty-fifth inning. Vignaux only scored 243. The game stands—Schaefer, 2,400; Vignaux, 1,372.

Will Give the Money Back. BRADFORD, Pa., March 13.—King and Christie the two clerks in the First National bank, who were arrested for using the funds of the bank for speculation, were acquitted Friday. They will make restitution.

The Chess Champions. NEW ORLEANS, March 13.—The chess game between Zukertort and Spink: Friday was a draw.

Advice to Mothers. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children to bring it. It soothes the child, cures the colic, kills the pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea, 25c a bottle.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

OGDEN B. FETHERS, JEFFREYS, SMITH, FETHERS, JEFFREYS & SMITH, ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS, JEFFREYS BLOCK, JANEVILLE, WIS.

ANGIE J. KING, Attorney & Counselor-at-Law, Office, No. 4 West Milwaukee St., Over Britton & Kimball's furniture store, JANEVILLE, WISCONSIN.

MUSIC, INSTRUCTION IN INSTRUMENTAL AND VOCAL, Given at reasonable rates. Apply to MISS A. M. WALKER, 100 South Jackson St., P. O. Box 102, Janesville.

CLARA L. NORMINGTON, M. D., OFFICE AND RESIDENCE, 23 Main St., Over Vankirk's store, Office Hours, 10 to 5 p. m., daily.

F. M. HAWLEY, M. D., Eclectic Physician and Surgeon, Office in Northern block, 114 1/2 West Madison St., Over Union Trust Co., Janesville, Wis.

O. R. DALL, Theatrical, Violin and Clarinet Soloist, Allocated teacher - follows the course of the College of Music of Cincinnati, from which institution he has received his diploma.

W. H. GROVE, DENTIST, Corner Milwaukee and River Sts., Janesville, Wis.

Insurance Real Estate and Loan Office, Fire Cyclone and Life Insurance, In the best companies at the lowest possible rates.

GEORGE K. COLLING, Builder and Contractor, Plans and Specifications for Building, 70 North Main St., Janesville.

CHARLES GAUL, Fancy Dyeing, Kinds of Clothes Cleaned and Dyed, All kinds of Clothes dyed, including cotton, wool, silk, etc.

JOSEPH SCHLITZ BREWING COMPANY, 12 Milwaukee Ave., Janesville, Wis.

MAY W. HAWLEY, M. D., Lady Physician and Gynecologist, Office in Northern block, 114 1/2 West Madison St., Janesville, Wis.

T. JUDD, DENTIST, 100 South Jackson St., Janesville, Wis.

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, LATTIN'S BLOCK, JANEVILLE, WISCONSIN.

O. E. BOWLES, Real Estate and Loan Agent, Offers to buy or sell real estate, and to act as agent for the same.

H. H. BLANCHARD, Attorney-at-Law, MAIN STREET, NINTH'S BLOCK, Attention given to Collections and Foreclosing Mortgages.

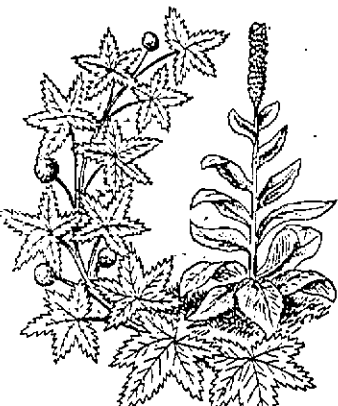

F. C. LINDE, HAMILTON & CO., TOBACCO INSPECTORS, And Warehousemen, NEW YORK, Country Sampling promptly attended to.

JOHN WINANS, H. M. HYER, Winans & Hyer, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, BENNETT'S BLOCK, JANEVILLE, WISCONSIN.

JAMES GARDNER, Janesville, Wis., Has opened an establishment on Main Milwaukee St., Janesville, Wis.

MISCELLANEOUS

FOR COUGHS, CROUP AND CONSUMPTION USE TAYLOR'S "CHEROKEE" REMEDY

SWEET CUM MULLEIN, The sweet cum mullein, from a tree of the same name, growing along the Allegheny river, is a valuable remedy for coughs, croup, and consumption.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, HEADACHE, INDIGESTION, BILIOUSNESS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS PROSTRATION, MALARIA, CHILLS AND FEVERS, TIRED FEELING, GENERAL DEBILITY, PAIN IN THE BACK & SIDES, IMPURE BLOOD, CONSTIPATION, FEMALE INFIRMITIES, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, KIDNEY AND LIVER TROUBLES.

PSORIASIS, AND ALL ITORING AND SCALY SKIN AND SCALY DISEASES CURED BY CUTI-CURE.

POKASSIA, OR SALT SKIN, J. John, D. S., having practiced medicine for 20 years, and being well known to the people of this city, has been called to the aid of a patient suffering from this disease.

DISTRESSING EDUCATION, G. F. Currier, Remedies performed a wonderful cure for a patient suffering from this disease.

BEAUTY, THE COMPLEXION AND SKIN, Improved by using the Cuti-Cure.

SEND FOR HOW TO CURE SKIN DISEASES, CUTI-CURE, THE COMPLEXION AND SKIN, Improved by using the Cuti-Cure.

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, LATTIN'S BLOCK, JANEVILLE, WISCONSIN.

O. E. BOWLES, Real Estate and Loan Agent, Offers to buy or sell real estate, and to act as agent for the same.

H. H. BLANCHARD, Attorney-at-Law, MAIN STREET, NINTH'S BLOCK, Attention given to Collections and Foreclosing Mortgages.

F. C. LINDE, HAMILTON & CO., TOBACCO INSPECTORS, And Warehousemen, NEW YORK, Country Sampling promptly attended to.

JOHN WINANS, H. M. HYER, Winans & Hyer, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, BENNETT'S BLOCK, JANEVILLE, WISCONSIN.

JAMES GARDNER, Janesville, Wis., Has opened an establishment on Main Milwaukee St., Janesville, Wis.

BAKER'S Breakfast Cocoa, GOLD MEDAL, PARIS 1878, BAKER'S Breakfast Cocoa, GOLD MEDAL, PARIS 1878.

W. BAKER & CO., Dorchester, Mass., BAKER'S Breakfast Cocoa, GOLD MEDAL, PARIS 1878.

ALL kinds at the Gazette Counting Room.

THE GAZETTE.

CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN, TRAINS AT JANESVILLE STATION, From Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, To Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul.

CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE AND ST. PAUL, TRAINS LEAVE, From Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, To Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul.

CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE AND ST. PAUL, TRAINS ARRIVE, From Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, To Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul.

IN THE ALTMARK, Violet had just told her situation and her lover when Mrs. Van Buren called.

GUSTAVE'S PATIENCE, The sound of a hand is not so loud as that of a heart, Violet had just told her situation and her lover when Mrs. Van Buren called.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

MISCELLANEOUS

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

MISCELLANEOUS

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

MISCELLANEOUS

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

DO NOT CHANGE THE TIDE OF JUSTIFYING, Of course it would be impossible for Violet to lose a single day in the life of the Altmark.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS

HALL & FARNSWORTH, THE JEWELERS, Webb & Ha, Successors to, HAVE THE GENUINE SCOTCH PEBBLE SPECTACLES!

Also a full line of Spectacles, and Eye Glasses, with Gold, Silver, Steel Rubber, Celluloid, Zylonite and Lenses, also the largest stock of WATCHES, CLOCKS, JEWELRY, Gold and Silver Head Cans, THE BEST IN THE WORLD, TRY THEM & SEE AGAIN AS IN YOUTH.

E. HALL'S VARIETY STORE, "NORCROSS" CLOCK, You can find the best Dutch wire, Iron and Steel Wires, in small or large size, a solid steel chopping axe, etc.

ONE MILLION OF SOLID ASSETS, MARK RIPLEY, ELKHART CARRIAGE & HARNESS MFG CO.

CARRIAGES, BUGGIES AND SLEIGHS, I am now located in my new three story brick building and have the largest and finest stock of Buggies, Carriages and Sleighs in southern Wisconsin and at prices that defy competition.

THE CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE & ST. PAUL RAILWAY COMPANY, Owns and operates nearly 5,000 miles of track, daily running over 1,000 passenger trains.

FIVE THOUSAND LADIES, WANTED TO DO, I have made the name of FIVE THOUSAND LADIES, a household name, and I want to do it again.

WANTED IMMEDIATELY, 75,000 MEN, who are cross-cut saws, to be used in the construction of the new Panama Canal.

George H. Watson & Co., 30 BROAD ST., NEW YORK, Stocks, Bonds, etc., Bought and Sold for Cash or on Margin.

Burlington Route, C.B. & Q.R.R., Through Line, with its own track, between Chicago, Peoria, Denver, St. Louis and St. Paul.

Baker's Dozen, 13 Card Photographs, FOR $2.00, C. F. TURNER'S, 100 South Jackson St., Janesville, Wis.

THE GAZETTE.
SATURDAY, MARCH 13
LOCAL MATTERS.
Corset sale at Archie Reid's.
New line Gilbert's home spun dress goods.
Don't be humbugged by any new or cheap deals, come up to the reliable East End and spend your hard earned dollar where you can get the most for it.

—The two teams of the Janesville polo team, will play in uniform to-night. Admission 10 cents.
—Another light fall of snow last night, and the U. S. signal service failed, in that it predicted fair weather.
—Next Friday the scholars of the high school will celebrate the birthday of the poet Moore in a befitting manner.

—The man with a wagon full of freshly caught perch and pickled did quite a business around the streets to-day.
—Remember the three great polo games between the "Macos," champions of the Indians state league, and the Janesville, March 22, 23 and 24.
—The meeting of the Orono Union on Monday evening will be a business meeting of the entire society instead of the officers as has been stated.

—The probability is that the Lake sides and Janesville will play no more polo together this season unless it be for money—Evening Journal. Right you are.
—City Treasurer J. A. Blount is rapidly recovering from his recent severe illness and will be in his office at the city building in a few days. He was down town a short time this afternoon.
—Consider the tramp of the highway says the Merchants' Traveler. "He toils not, neither does he spin, yet Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of them." No, we rather guess not.

—The streets to-day were unusually dull, a fact that was undoubtedly due to the bad roads in the country. Farmer's coming in from some directions had to bring very light loads or else run the risk of being stuck.
—The Deloit Free Tree: "The rink has been leased for a year to the officials of the Salvation Army, and the first services will be held therein on Sunday, the 21st instant. A detachment of the 'Army' will reach the city next week."
—The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Guernsey, formerly of Janesville, now of Dubuque, Iowa, will deeply sympathize with them in the death of their little son Orrin, which sad event occurred in that city last week.

—City Clerk C. E. Church, acting as city treasurer during the illness of Treasurer Blount, to-day distributed the sum of $1,028.00 among the city school teachers and janitors, being the amount of the pay roll for the four weeks ending with date.
—Mr. John M. Bauman to-day received a dispatch from Watertown, this state, announcing the death of his uncle Ernest Bauman, which occurred last evening, aged 75 years. He was an old and respected citizen of Watertown.

—The general verdict of those who witnessed the polo game at the rink last evening between the Milwaukee and the Janesville, is that it was the best game ever played here. There were many fine plays made by individual members of both clubs, and the game was most exciting from the beginning to the end.
—The members of Wisconsin Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F., will assemble at Old Fellows' hall to-morrow afternoon at one o'clock, for the purpose of attending the funeral of Henry Coppin, a member of the lodge. The members of No. 30, and all other Odd Fellows in the city, are invited to attend.

—To the business man who is some times obliged to remain down town during the noon hour, a place where he can get a warm meal is a necessity. Alois Gelling, the successor to G. A. Shurtliff, has made arrangements for this class of custom, and having an excellent order book, is prepared to guarantee satisfaction to all who call on him.
—A postal card received from Prof. O. R. Dahl, who is in Cincinnati, attending the College of Music, says: "Miss Gertrude Wheeler has been examined at the College of Music, and the professors are surprised at her fine beginning, for which I received several good compliments for my teaching. No criticism to offer as far as she has gone."

—All the towns have now made their settlement with County Treasurer Miles, the taxes in the cities of Janesville and Beloit being the only ones remaining unpaid. All tax payors in the various towns who have not yet paid their share of the county's expenses must call at the county treasurer's office and all property on which the taxes are not paid by the third Tuesday in May, will be sold at auction according to the law in such cases.
—Alluding to the article published in last evening's Gazette showing premium receipts and disbursements of the insurance companies doing business in Wisconsin for the year 1885, we omitted one important item of the expense. There should be deducted from the gross premium receipts 33 1/3 per cent on expenses account, and that sum added to the losses paid and incurred, in order to show what was actually made or lost by the companies represented in this state. This would show that the fire insurance companies lost from 7 to 8 per cent, in other words, the companies paid about $170,000 for the privilege of doing business in this state for 1885.

—Rev. A. J. Van Wagner, pastor of the Congregational church, will on to-morrow (Sunday) evening, commence a series of Sunday evening lectures on "Janesville by Gas Light." The subject of the first lecture, to-morrow evening, will be "The Tiger's Den, or Gamblers and Gambling." The reverend gentleman has given the subject much thought and study, and the lecture will not be a sensational compilation of facts, but will treat of facts as they exist. The public is cordially invited. Young men, especially, will want to hear these lectures on the sins of our city; parents, also, that they may warn their children of the pitfalls that surround them.
—Last evening between forty and fifty young ladies and gentlemen assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Follenberg, South Cherry street, fourth ward, for the purpose of a surprise upon their son Eddie. The party was a most pleasant one and the evening was happily spent in music and innocent games, and at a seasonable hour the young people dispersed to their respective homes pleased with the entertainment. It is understood that Mr. Follenberg and family will shortly remove to Charles City, Iowa, and the young friends of their son Eddie took advantage of this occasion to give him a farewell surprise. The surprise will be long remembered by all who participated.

THEY PLAYED WELL.
And Defeated the Milwaukeees By a Score of 3 to 2.
A Close Game With Many Fine Plays.
On Both Sides.
It hardly looked as though polo was dead (in Janesville), when the crowd poured into the rink last night, and before half past eight o'clock every available spot was occupied. A wreck near Waterway delayed the appearance of the Milwaukee team until about fifteen minutes before ten, although one or two of them had come on the afternoon train. It was almost ten o'clock when the men took their places, and the game commenced immediately, Elbert winning the rush, but having the ball taken from him by Fahnstock. The fight in this goal was more around the ends, very little open floor work being seen. Both the Janesville and Milwaukee goalkeepers having some lively work. Finally Sperry and Elbert took the ball between them and rushing down the rink Elbert passed it into the cage. Time 4:32.
For a few minutes after recommending play the game looked considerably like base ball as the lively rubber sphere was in the air more than on the floor. The Milwaukee goal men distinguished themselves by winning loud applause by their skill and audacity, and making a number of very fine stops. Brown and Shaller also did well, repelling Fahnstock's assaults very cleverly. This was the longest goal of the game being made by Sperry assisted by Brown in 10:42.
The next point was made in a manner that excited quite a burst of applause. The fight had been all over the floor, the visitors seeming to have rather the best of it, when suddenly the ball was driven from the center of a scrimmage straight toward their cage. Elbert was waiting, however, and raising his stick he lifted it higher over the heads of the players. It dropped at the feet of the Janesville goal tenders, and before they had time to make a move, Owen, who was standing just in front of the cage, had driven it past them into the netting. Time—5:31.
The fourth goal was also made by a very skillful play. Williams was almost half way down the floor when he got the ball. He turned as if on a pivot and making a point to pass it to Fahnstock he drove it into the cage. Time—5:51.
The game now being a tie both teams played their best and the spectators yelled themselves hoarse at the fine work that was done. At the eighth Sperry took the ball back of the Milwaukee cage with two or three of the boys in white crowding around him. He gave a quick stroke, that sent it by the goal tenders, out about four feet in front of the cage. Brown, who was standing quite a distance away, made one of his running jumps, and before Williams and Somers could turn around the ball was in his net. Time, 7:32.
Brown, of the home team, and Williams, the Milwaukee rusher, carried off the honors of the evening, the former as specially seeming to be everywhere at once, although there was nothing but good work done by either teams. The summary is as follows:

GO TO DORANCE & RICH.
The New Rheumide Grocers, 15 Main street, no.
15 lbs. Granulated Sugar, $1.00
15 lbs. Standard A, 1.00
16 white extra C, 1.00
22 bar Old Country Soap, 1.00
Kerosene oil, 1.00
New crop Japan tea 3 lbs for, 1.00
Table Syrup, granulated pure, 40
We have a genuine open kettle New Orleans molasses, 15 Main street.

We have received a world of new things in cotton dress fabrics and can please the thousands.
J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
New line striped and two-toned velvets.
BORT, BAILEY & CO.
Oranges by the box at Denniston's $3.50 for choice riverides at Denniston's.
Try Eldredge's Asthma remedy.

We keep the "Aurora" and "New Idea" carpet sweepers. They are the best made, and always give satisfaction.
J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
For Sale.
Nine fine lots in the first ward. Cheapest in the city. Get my prices before buying.
D. OGDEN.
Hamburg edgings, chambray edgings, in white and colors, at
BORT, BAILEY & CO.
We are showing a handsome line of new dress buttons—large, medium and small.
J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
For Sale—On easy terms, the best 217 acre openings farm in Rock county.
H. H. BLANCHARD.
All kinds of harness, blankets and lap robes, at James A. Rathbun's.

A house now renting for $8 a month with two good lots, in second ward, for sale for $1,000.
C. E. BOWLES.
Holiday goods and playing cards at Eldredge's.
Cocoa nuts, bananas and other fruits at Denniston's.
2,800 standard dollars will buy a residence property, on east side, worth $3,500 in gold.
C. E. BOWLES.
"LOW PRICES TELL."
READ THIS LIST!
Best Granulated Sugar, 15 lbs., $1.00
Best Rio Coffee, per lb., .12 1/2
Best Mexican Java Coffee, per lb., .20
Best Turkish Prunes, per lb., .05
Best Cranberries, per qt., .05
Best Home-Made Pickles, per gallon, .25
Best Kerosene Oil, per gallon, .10
Best Water White Headlight, per gallon, .15
Best 3 lb. Cigar, April 10, .45
Choice Smoking Tobacco, per pound, .20
Choice Potatoes, per bushel, .30
Choice Canned Corn, .08
Choice Canned Tomatoes, .18
Best 3 lb. Cigar, April 10, .45
Best 3 lb. Yellow Peaches, .12 1/2
Babbitts Best Soap, .45
Kirk's Best Soap, .45
Telephone Soap, .45
Old Country Soap, per lb., .10
Choice Family Flour, warranted, 1.00
Choice Minn. Flour, warranted, 1.10
Best Ham and Dried Beef, .10
Pineapple Ham and Dried Beef, .10
Hudson's Pearl White Vienna at cost.
New York sweet white 20 cents per gal.
All cigars at cost wholesale and retail. Choice Apples very cheap. I sell choice tea lower than any house in the city and give you a pound of choice candy and nuts free for the children. I do not advertise a few leaders that people buy few of below cost for bait, but I sell all goods cheapest for cash or approved paper.

Respectfully,
W. T. YANKIN,
22 Main Street.
Wolf, buffalo and goat robes, at James A. Rathbun's, corner Court and Main streets.

THEY PLAYED WELL.
And Defeated the Milwaukeees By a Score of 3 to 2.
A Close Game With Many Fine Plays.
On Both Sides.
It hardly looked as though polo was dead (in Janesville), when the crowd poured into the rink last night, and before half past eight o'clock every available spot was occupied. A wreck near Waterway delayed the appearance of the Milwaukee team until about fifteen minutes before ten, although one or two of them had come on the afternoon train. It was almost ten o'clock when the men took their places, and the game commenced immediately, Elbert winning the rush, but having the ball taken from him by Fahnstock. The fight in this goal was more around the ends, very little open floor work being seen. Both the Janesville and Milwaukee goalkeepers having some lively work. Finally Sperry and Elbert took the ball between them and rushing down the rink Elbert passed it into the cage. Time 4:32.
For a few minutes after recommending play the game looked considerably like base ball as the lively rubber sphere was in the air more than on the floor. The Milwaukee goal men distinguished themselves by winning loud applause by their skill and audacity, and making a number of very fine stops. Brown and Shaller also did well, repelling Fahnstock's assaults very cleverly. This was the longest goal of the game being made by Sperry assisted by Brown in 10:42.
The next point was made in a manner that excited quite a burst of applause. The fight had been all over the floor, the visitors seeming to have rather the best of it, when suddenly the ball was driven from the center of a scrimmage straight toward their cage. Elbert was waiting, however, and raising his stick he lifted it higher over the heads of the players. It dropped at the feet of the Janesville goal tenders, and before they had time to make a move, Owen, who was standing just in front of the cage, had driven it past them into the netting. Time—5:31.
The fourth goal was also made by a very skillful play. Williams was almost half way down the floor when he got the ball. He turned as if on a pivot and making a point to pass it to Fahnstock he drove it into the cage. Time—5:51.
The game now being a tie both teams played their best and the spectators yelled themselves hoarse at the fine work that was done. At the eighth Sperry took the ball back of the Milwaukee cage with two or three of the boys in white crowding around him. He gave a quick stroke, that sent it by the goal tenders, out about four feet in front of the cage. Brown, who was standing quite a distance away, made one of his running jumps, and before Williams and Somers could turn around the ball was in his net. Time, 7:32.
Brown, of the home team, and Williams, the Milwaukee rusher, carried off the honors of the evening, the former as specially seeming to be everywhere at once, although there was nothing but good work done by either teams. The summary is as follows:

GO TO DORANCE & RICH.
The New Rheumide Grocers, 15 Main street, no.
15 lbs. Granulated Sugar, $1.00
15 lbs. Standard A, 1.00
16 white extra C, 1.00
22 bar Old Country Soap, 1.00
Kerosene oil, 1.00
New crop Japan tea 3 lbs for, 1.00
Table Syrup, granulated pure, 40
We have a genuine open kettle New Orleans molasses, 15 Main street.

We have received a world of new things in cotton dress fabrics and can please the thousands.
J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
New line striped and two-toned velvets.
BORT, BAILEY & CO.
Oranges by the box at Denniston's $3.50 for choice riverides at Denniston's.
Try Eldredge's Asthma remedy.

We keep the "Aurora" and "New Idea" carpet sweepers. They are the best made, and always give satisfaction.
J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
For Sale.
Nine fine lots in the first ward. Cheapest in the city. Get my prices before buying.
D. OGDEN.
Hamburg edgings, chambray edgings, in white and colors, at
BORT, BAILEY & CO.
We are showing a handsome line of new dress buttons—large, medium and small.
J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
For Sale—On easy terms, the best 217 acre openings farm in Rock county.
H. H. BLANCHARD.
All kinds of harness, blankets and lap robes, at James A. Rathbun's.

THEY PLAYED WELL.
And Defeated the Milwaukeees By a Score of 3 to 2.
A Close Game With Many Fine Plays.
On Both Sides.
It hardly looked as though polo was dead (in Janesville), when the crowd poured into the rink last night, and before half past eight o'clock every available spot was occupied. A wreck near Waterway delayed the appearance of the Milwaukee team until about fifteen minutes before ten, although one or two of them had come on the afternoon train. It was almost ten o'clock when the men took their places, and the game commenced immediately, Elbert winning the rush, but having the ball taken from him by Fahnstock. The fight in this goal was more around the ends, very little open floor work being seen. Both the Janesville and Milwaukee goalkeepers having some lively work. Finally Sperry and Elbert took the ball between them and rushing down the rink Elbert passed it into the cage. Time 4:32.
For a few minutes after recommending play the game looked considerably like base ball as the lively rubber sphere was in the air more than on the floor. The Milwaukee goal men distinguished themselves by winning loud applause by their skill and audacity, and making a number of very fine stops. Brown and Shaller also did well, repelling Fahnstock's assaults very cleverly. This was the longest goal of the game being made by Sperry assisted by Brown in 10:42.
The next point was made in a manner that excited quite a burst of applause. The fight had been all over the floor, the visitors seeming to have rather the best of it, when suddenly the ball was driven from the center of a scrimmage straight toward their cage. Elbert was waiting, however, and raising his stick he lifted it higher over the heads of the players. It dropped at the feet of the Janesville goal tenders, and before they had time to make a move, Owen, who was standing just in front of the cage, had driven it past them into the netting. Time—5:31.
The fourth goal was also made by a very skillful play. Williams was almost half way down the floor when he got the ball. He turned as if on a pivot and making a point to pass it to Fahnstock he drove it into the cage. Time—5:51.
The game now being a tie both teams played their best and the spectators yelled themselves hoarse at the fine work that was done. At the eighth Sperry took the ball back of the Milwaukee cage with two or three of the boys in white crowding around him. He gave a quick stroke, that sent it by the goal tenders, out about four feet in front of the cage. Brown, who was standing quite a distance away, made one of his running jumps, and before Williams and Somers could turn around the ball was in his net. Time, 7:32.
Brown, of the home team, and Williams, the Milwaukee rusher, carried off the honors of the evening, the former as specially seeming to be everywhere at once, although there was nothing but good work done by either teams. The summary is as follows:

GO TO DORANCE & RICH.
The New Rheumide Grocers, 15 Main street, no.
15 lbs. Granulated Sugar, $1.00
15 lbs. Standard A, 1.00
16 white extra C, 1.00
22 bar Old Country Soap, 1.00
Kerosene oil, 1.00
New crop Japan tea 3 lbs for, 1.00
Table Syrup, granulated pure, 40
We have a genuine open kettle New Orleans molasses, 15 Main street.

We have received a world of new things in cotton dress fabrics and can please the thousands.
J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
New line striped and two-toned velvets.
BORT, BAILEY & CO.
Oranges by the box at Denniston's $3.50 for choice riverides at Denniston's.
Try Eldredge's Asthma remedy.

We keep the "Aurora" and "New Idea" carpet sweepers. They are the best made, and always give satisfaction.
J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
For Sale.
Nine fine lots in the first ward. Cheapest in the city. Get my prices before buying.
D. OGDEN.
Hamburg edgings, chambray edgings, in white and colors, at
BORT, BAILEY & CO.
We are showing a handsome line of new dress buttons—large, medium and small.
J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
For Sale—On easy terms, the best 217 acre openings farm in Rock county.
H. H. BLANCHARD.
All kinds of harness, blankets and lap robes, at James A. Rathbun's.

THEY PLAYED WELL.
And Defeated the Milwaukeees By a Score of 3 to 2.
A Close Game With Many Fine Plays.
On Both Sides.
It hardly looked as though polo was dead (in Janesville), when the crowd poured into the rink last night, and before half past eight o'clock every available spot was occupied. A wreck near Waterway delayed the appearance of the Milwaukee team until about fifteen minutes before ten, although one or two of them had come on the afternoon train. It was almost ten o'clock when the men took their places, and the game commenced immediately, Elbert winning the rush, but having the ball taken from him by Fahnstock. The fight in this goal was more around the ends, very little open floor work being seen. Both the Janesville and Milwaukee goalkeepers having some lively work. Finally Sperry and Elbert took the ball between them and rushing down the rink Elbert passed it into the cage. Time 4:32.
For a few minutes after recommending play the game looked considerably like base ball as the lively rubber sphere was in the air more than on the floor. The Milwaukee goal men distinguished themselves by winning loud applause by their skill and audacity, and making a number of very fine stops. Brown and Shaller also did well, repelling Fahnstock's assaults very cleverly. This was the longest goal of the game being made by Sperry assisted by Brown in 10:42.
The next point was made in a manner that excited quite a burst of applause. The fight had been all over the floor, the visitors seeming to have rather the best of it, when suddenly the ball was driven from the center of a scrimmage straight toward their cage. Elbert was waiting, however, and raising his stick he lifted it higher over the heads of the players. It dropped at the feet of the Janesville goal tenders, and before they had time to make a move, Owen, who was standing just in front of the cage, had driven it past them into the netting. Time—5:31.
The fourth goal was also made by a very skillful play. Williams was almost half way down the floor when he got the ball. He turned as if on a pivot and making a point to pass it to Fahnstock he drove it into the cage. Time—5:51.
The game now being a tie both teams played their best and the spectators yelled themselves hoarse at the fine work that was done. At the eighth Sperry took the ball back of the Milwaukee cage with two or three of the boys in white crowding around him. He gave a quick stroke, that sent it by the goal tenders, out about four feet in front of the cage. Brown, who was standing quite a distance away, made one of his running jumps, and before Williams and Somers could turn around the ball was in his net. Time, 7:32.
Brown, of the home team, and Williams, the Milwaukee rusher, carried off the honors of the evening, the former as specially seeming to be everywhere at once, although there was nothing but good work done by either teams. The summary is as follows:

GO TO DORANCE & RICH.
The New Rheumide Grocers, 15 Main street, no.
15 lbs. Granulated Sugar, $1.00
15 lbs. Standard A, 1.00
16 white extra C, 1.00
22 bar Old Country Soap, 1.00
Kerosene oil, 1.00
New crop Japan tea 3 lbs for, 1.00
Table Syrup, granulated pure, 40
We have a genuine open kettle New Orleans molasses, 15 Main street.

We have received a world of new things in cotton dress fabrics and can please the thousands.
J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
New line striped and two-toned velvets.
BORT, BAILEY & CO.
Oranges by the box at Denniston's $3.50 for choice riverides at Denniston's.
Try Eldredge's Asthma remedy.

We keep the "Aurora" and "New Idea" carpet sweepers. They are the best made, and always give satisfaction.
J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
For Sale.
Nine fine lots in the first ward. Cheapest in the city. Get my prices before buying.
D. OGDEN.
Hamburg edgings, chambray edgings, in white and colors, at
BORT, BAILEY & CO.
We are showing a handsome line of new dress buttons—large, medium and small.
J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
For Sale—On easy terms, the best 217 acre openings farm in Rock county.
H. H. BLANCHARD.
All kinds of harness, blankets and lap robes, at James A. Rathbun's.

THEY PLAYED WELL.
And Defeated the Milwaukeees By a Score of 3 to 2.
A Close Game With Many Fine Plays.
On Both Sides.
It hardly looked as though polo was dead (in Janesville), when the crowd poured into the rink last night, and before half past eight o'clock every available spot was occupied. A wreck near Waterway delayed the appearance of the Milwaukee team until about fifteen minutes before ten, although one or two of them had come on the afternoon train. It was almost ten o'clock when the men took their places, and the game commenced immediately, Elbert winning the rush, but having the ball taken from him by Fahnstock. The fight in this goal was more around the ends, very little open floor work being seen. Both the Janesville and Milwaukee goalkeepers having some lively work. Finally Sperry and Elbert took the ball between them and rushing down the rink Elbert passed it into the cage. Time 4:32.
For a few minutes after recommending play the game looked considerably like base ball as the lively rubber sphere was in the air more than on the floor. The Milwaukee goal men distinguished themselves by winning loud applause by their skill and audacity, and making a number of very fine stops. Brown and Shaller also did well, repelling Fahnstock's assaults very cleverly. This was the longest goal of the game being made by Sperry assisted by Brown in 10:42.
The next point was made in a manner that excited quite a burst of applause. The fight had been all over the floor, the visitors seeming to have rather the best of it, when suddenly the ball was driven from the center of a scrimmage straight toward their cage. Elbert was waiting, however, and raising his stick he lifted it higher over the heads of the players. It dropped at the feet of the Janesville goal tenders, and before they had time to make a move, Owen, who was standing just in front of the cage, had driven it past them into the netting. Time—5:31.
The fourth goal was also made by a very skillful play. Williams was almost half way down the floor when he got the ball. He turned as if on a pivot and making a point to pass it to Fahnstock he drove it into the cage. Time—5:51.
The game now being a tie both teams played their best and the spectators yelled themselves hoarse at the fine work that was done. At the eighth Sperry took the ball back of the Milwaukee cage with two or three of the boys in white crowding around him. He gave a quick stroke, that sent it by the goal tenders, out about four feet in front of the cage. Brown, who was standing quite a distance away, made one of his running jumps, and before Williams and Somers could turn around the ball was in his net. Time, 7:32.
Brown, of the home team, and Williams, the Milwaukee rusher, carried off the honors of the evening, the former as specially seeming to be everywhere at once, although there was nothing but good work done by either teams. The summary is as follows:

GO TO DORANCE & RICH.
The New Rheumide Grocers, 15 Main street, no.
15 lbs. Granulated Sugar, $1.00
15 lbs. Standard A, 1.00
16 white extra C, 1.00
22 bar Old Country Soap, 1.00
Kerosene oil, 1.00
New crop Japan tea 3 lbs for, 1.00
Table Syrup, granulated pure, 40
We have a genuine open kettle New Orleans molasses, 15 Main street.

THEY PLAYED WELL.
And Defeated the Milwaukeees By a Score of 3 to 2.
A Close Game With Many Fine Plays.
On Both Sides.
It hardly looked as though polo was dead (in Janesville), when the crowd poured into the rink last night, and before half past eight o'clock every available spot was occupied. A wreck near Waterway delayed the appearance of the Milwaukee team until about fifteen minutes before ten, although one or two of them had come on the afternoon train. It was almost ten o'clock when the men took their places, and the game commenced immediately, Elbert winning the rush, but having the ball taken from him by Fahnstock. The fight in this goal was more around the ends, very little open floor work being seen. Both the Janesville and Milwaukee goalkeepers having some lively work. Finally Sperry and Elbert took the ball between them and rushing down the rink Elbert passed it into the cage. Time 4:32.
For a few minutes after recommending play the game looked considerably like base ball as the lively rubber sphere was in the air more than on the floor. The Milwaukee goal men distinguished themselves by winning loud applause by their skill and audacity, and making a number of very fine stops. Brown and Shaller also did well, repelling Fahnstock's assaults very cleverly. This was the longest goal of the game being made by Sperry assisted by Brown in 10:42.
The next point was made in a manner that excited quite a burst of applause. The fight had been all over the floor, the visitors seeming to have rather the best of it, when suddenly the ball was driven from the center of a scrimmage straight toward their cage. Elbert was waiting, however, and raising his stick he lifted it higher over the heads of the players. It dropped at the feet of the Janesville goal tenders, and before they had time to make a move, Owen, who was standing just in front of the cage, had driven it past them into the netting. Time—5:31.
The fourth goal was also made by a very skillful play. Williams was almost half way down the floor when he got the ball. He turned as if on a pivot and making a point to pass it to Fahnstock he drove it into the cage. Time—5:51.
The game now being a tie both teams played their best and the spectators yelled themselves hoarse at the fine work that was done. At the eighth Sperry took the ball back of the Milwaukee cage with two or three of the boys in white crowding around him. He gave a quick stroke, that sent it by the goal tenders, out about four feet in front of the cage. Brown, who was standing quite a distance away, made one of his running jumps, and before Williams and Somers could turn around the ball was in his net. Time, 7:32.
Brown, of the home team, and Williams, the Milwaukee rusher, carried off the honors of the evening, the former as specially seeming to be everywhere at once, although there was nothing but good work done by either teams. The summary is as follows:

GO TO DORANCE & RICH.
The New Rheumide Grocers, 15 Main street, no.
15 lbs. Granulated Sugar, $1.00
15 lbs. Standard A, 1.00
16 white extra C, 1.00
22 bar Old Country Soap, 1.00
Kerosene oil, 1.00
New crop Japan tea 3 lbs for, 1.00
Table Syrup, granulated pure, 40
We have a genuine open kettle New Orleans molasses, 15 Main street.

We have received a world of new things in cotton dress fabrics and can please the thousands.
J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
New line striped and two-toned velvets.
BORT, BAILEY & CO.
Oranges by the box at Denniston's $3.50 for choice riverides at Denniston's.
Try Eldredge's Asthma remedy.

We keep the "Aurora" and "New Idea" carpet sweepers. They are the best made, and always give satisfaction.
J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
For Sale.
Nine fine lots in the first ward. Cheapest in the city. Get my prices before buying.
D. OGDEN.
Hamburg edgings, chambray edgings, in white and colors, at
BORT, BAILEY & CO.
We are showing a handsome line of new dress buttons—large, medium and small.
J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
For Sale—On easy terms, the best 217 acre openings farm in Rock county.
H. H. BLANCHARD.
All kinds of harness, blankets and lap robes, at James A. Rathbun's.

THEY PLAYED WELL.
And Defeated the Milwaukeees By a Score of 3 to 2.
A Close Game With Many Fine Plays.
On Both Sides.
It hardly looked as though polo was dead (in Janesville), when the crowd poured into the rink last night, and before half past eight o'clock every available spot was occupied. A wreck near Waterway delayed the appearance of the Milwaukee team until about fifteen minutes before ten, although one or two of them had come on the afternoon train. It was almost ten o'clock when the men took their places, and the game commenced immediately, Elbert winning the rush, but having the ball taken from him by Fahnstock. The fight in this goal was more around the ends, very little open floor work being seen. Both the Janesville and Milwaukee goalkeepers having some lively work. Finally Sperry and Elbert took the ball between them and rushing down the rink Elbert passed it into the cage. Time 4:32.
For a few minutes after recommending play the game looked considerably like base ball as the lively rubber sphere was in the air more than on the floor. The Milwaukee goal men distinguished themselves by winning loud applause by their skill and audacity, and making a number of very fine stops. Brown and Shaller also did well, repelling Fahnstock's assaults very cleverly. This was the longest goal of the game being made by Sperry assisted by Brown in 10:42.
The next point was made in a manner that excited quite a burst of applause. The fight had been all over the floor, the visitors seeming to have rather the best of it, when suddenly the ball was driven from the center of a scrimmage straight toward their cage. Elbert was waiting, however, and raising his stick he lifted it higher over the heads of the players. It dropped at the feet of the Janesville goal tenders, and before they had time to make a move, Owen, who was standing just in front of the cage, had driven it past them into the netting. Time—5:31.
The fourth goal was also made by a very skillful play. Williams was almost half way down the floor when he got the ball. He turned as if on a pivot and making a point to pass it to Fahnstock he drove it into the cage. Time—5:51.
The game now being a tie both teams played their best and the spectators yelled themselves hoarse at the fine work that was done. At the eighth Sperry took the ball back of the Milwaukee cage with two or three of the boys in white crowding around him. He gave a quick stroke, that sent it by the goal tenders, out about four feet in front of the cage. Brown, who was standing quite a distance away, made one of his running jumps, and before Williams and Somers could turn around the ball was in his net. Time, 7:32.
Brown, of the home team, and Williams, the Milwaukee rusher, carried off the honors of the evening, the former as specially seeming to be everywhere at once, although there was nothing but good work done by either teams. The summary is as follows:

GO TO DORANCE & RICH.
The New Rheumide Grocers, 15 Main street, no.
15 lbs. Granulated Sugar, $1.00
15 lbs. Standard A, 1.00
16 white extra C, 1.00
22 bar Old Country Soap, 1.00
Kerosene oil, 1.00
New crop Japan tea 3 lbs for, 1.00
Table Syrup, granulated pure, 40
We have a genuine open kettle New Orleans molasses, 15 Main street.

We have received a world of new things in cotton dress fabrics and can please the thousands.
J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
New line striped and two-toned velvets.
BORT, BAILEY & CO.
Oranges by the box at Denniston's $3.50 for choice riverides at Denniston's.
Try Eldredge's Asthma remedy.

We keep the "Aurora" and "New Idea" carpet sweepers. They are the best made, and always give satisfaction.
J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
For Sale.
Nine fine lots in the first ward. Cheapest in the city. Get my prices before buying.
D. OGDEN.
Hamburg edgings, chambray edgings, in white and colors, at
BORT, BAILEY & CO.
We are showing a handsome line of new dress buttons—large, medium and small.
J. M. Bostwick & Sons.
For Sale—On easy terms, the best 217 acre openings farm in Rock county.
H. H. BLANCHARD.
All kinds of harness, blankets and lap robes, at James A. Rathbun's.

THEY PLAYED WELL.
And Defeated the Milwaukeees By a Score of 3 to 2.
A Close Game With Many Fine Plays.
On Both Sides.
It hardly looked as though polo was dead (in Janesville), when the crowd poured into the rink last night, and before half past eight o'clock every available spot was occupied. A wreck near Waterway delayed the appearance of the Milwaukee team until about fifteen minutes before ten, although one or two of them had come on the afternoon train. It was almost ten o'clock when the men took their places, and the game commenced immediately, Elbert winning the rush, but having the ball taken from him by Fahnstock. The fight in this goal was more around the ends, very little open floor work being seen. Both the Janesville and Milwaukee goalkeepers having some lively work. Finally Sperry and Elbert took the ball between them and rushing down the rink Elbert passed it into the cage. Time 4:32.
For a few minutes after recommending play the game looked considerably like base ball as the lively rubber sphere was in the air more than on the floor. The Milwaukee goal men distinguished themselves by winning loud applause by their skill and audacity, and making a number of very fine stops. Brown and Shaller also did well, repelling Fahnstock's assaults very cleverly. This was the longest goal of the game being made by Sperry assisted by Brown in 10:42.
The next point was made in a manner that excited quite a burst of applause. The fight had been all over the floor, the visitors seeming to have rather the best of it, when suddenly the ball was driven from the center of a scrimmage straight toward their cage. Elbert was waiting, however, and raising his stick he lifted it higher over the heads of the players. It dropped at the feet of the Janesville goal tenders, and before they had time to make a move, Owen, who was standing just in front of the cage, had driven it past them into the netting. Time—5:31.
The fourth goal was also made by a very skillful play. Williams was almost half way down the floor when he got the ball. He turned as if on a pivot and making a point to pass it to Fahnstock he drove it into the cage. Time—5:51.
The game now being a tie both teams played their best and the spectators yelled themselves hoarse at the fine work that was done. At the eighth Sperry took the ball back of the Milwaukee cage with two or three of the boys in white crowding around him. He gave a quick stroke, that sent it by the goal tenders, out about four feet in front of the cage. Brown, who was standing quite a distance away, made one of his running jumps, and before Williams and Somers could turn around the ball was in his net. Time, 7:32.
Brown, of the home team, and Williams, the Milwaukee rusher, carried off the honors of the evening, the former as specially seeming to be everywhere at once, although there was nothing but good work done by either teams. The summary is as follows:

GO TO DORANCE & RICH.
The New Rheumide Grocers, 15 Main street, no.
15 lbs. Granulated Sugar, $1.00
15 lbs. Standard A, 1.00
16 white extra C, 1.00
22 bar Old Country Soap, 1.00
Kerosene oil, 1.00
New crop Japan tea 3 lbs for, 1.00
Table Syrup, granulated pure, 40
We have a genuine open kettle New Orleans molasses, 15 Main street.

CHURCH DIRECTORY.
Giving the Time and Places Where Divine Services Will Be Held on Sunday.
"O come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord our maker. For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness."
PASTORIAN CHURCH—On Jackson street, Rev. W. E. Brown, Pastor. Services at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.
Services conducted by the pastor 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. All are cordially invited to attend. Morning subject, "The Greater Privilege." Evening topic, "Witnessing for Christ." Bible school at noon. Young people's meeting 6 P. M. Subject, "The Word." Prayer meeting Thursday evening. Personal testimonies in regard to the service of God.
CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Corner of Jackson and Dodge streets. Rev. A. J. Van Wagner, pastor. Church services at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Sunday school at 12 M. Prayer services and social service at 7:30 P. M. in the chapel at 7:30 P. M.
Mr. Van Wagner will preach both morning and evening. Morning subject, "How was Christ tempted in the wilderness." Evening, the first of a series of, Janesville by Gas Light. Subject, "The Tiger's Den; or Gamblers and Gambling." Strangers, citizens, young people, most cordially invited and welcomed. Ushers in attendance.
ALL SAINTS CHURCH—Corner of Court and Third streets. Rev. Joseph Walker, pastor. Sunday services at 10:30 A. M. Sunday school at 12 M.
The pastor will deliver a third and concluding lecture upon "Tennyson's Religious Poetry."
TRINITY CHURCH—Corner of Jackson and Third streets. Rev. J. E. Conover, D. D., pastor. Services at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Morning prayer and sermon at 10:30 A. M. Evening prayer and sermon at 7:30 P. M. Sunday school at 12 M